Chile
At the center, Megan Schildgen, Commercial Officer of the U.S. Department of Commerce of the International Trade Administration of the U.S. Commercial Service of the Embassy of the United States - Santiago, Chile. Next to her, Ricardo Llerandi, Executive Director of PR Trade and Puerto Rican entrepreneurs.

Mexico
At the center, Ricardo Llerandi, Executive Director of PR Trade next to Brian Brisson of the U.S. Commercial Service of the Embassy of the United States - Mexico.

Colombia
At the center, Ricardo Rossello, governor of Puerto Rico, next to Ricardo Llerandi, Executive Director of PR Trade and Puerto Rican entrepreneurs during the networking event.

Trinidad and Tobago
Above at the left, John McIntyre, Charge D’Affaires of the Embassy of the United States - Trinidad followed by Paula Gopee-Scoon, Minister of Trade and Industry for Trinidad, Maria Batista, Promoexport Director and Steve Jaipersad, Honorary Consul of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago.

Images of Foreign Trade Missions

Chile
Officers of the USCS in Chile were in the initial commercial briefing of the trade mission and held individual meetings with all participating companies.

Mexico
The trade mission started with a commercial briefing at the U.S. Embassy located in Mexico City; furthermore, the USCS assisted us in sending an invitation to the networking event.

Dominican Republic
Entrepreneurs attending the initial commercial briefing of the trade mission. The USCS-DR Office were present and addressed participating companies.

Colombia
Jeff Geiger, Commercial Officer of the USCS Bogotá was giving a presentation to the participating companies about business opportunities in Colombia.

Barbados
Jonelle M. Watson, Economic and Commercial Affairs, Political/Economic Section, Embassy of the USA to Barbados, addressed participating companies regarding their services can help them achieve their goals. Next, the Puerto Rico trade mission delegation.

Trinidad and Tobago
Second from the left, John McIntyre, Charge D’Affaires of the Embassy of the United States - Trinidad followed by Paula Gopee-Scoon, Minister of Trade and Industry for Trinidad, Maria Batista, Promoexport Director and Steve Jaipersad, Honorary Consul of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago.